

Democratic women make the difference

Arizona has been a leader in women's rights, passing into law in 1912, the right of women to vote and hold office, eight years before the 19th Amendment to the Constitution.

You can join the ranks of women who make a difference in Arizona. Serve as an officer, a committee chair, or as one of the many volunteers that make Yavapai County Democrats strong and vital.

"A nation is formed by the willingness of each of us to share in the responsibility for upholding the common good."

Barbara Jordan,
Lawyer and U.S. Congressperson (1936-1996)

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it's the only thing that ever has."

Margaret Mead,
American anthropologist (1901-1978)
